

David Gilb

CalPERS Board of Administration

David Gilb, Director of the California Department of Personnel Administration (DPA), became an ex officio member of the CalPERS Board of Administration July 1, 2006. He serves on the Benefits and Program Administration, Health Benefits, Investment, and Performance and Compensation Committees.

In his DPA position, Mr. Gilb oversees State employer-employee relations, the civil service classification system, statewide employee training, and numerous benefit programs such as Savings Plus, a defined contribution retirement savings program for State employees.

Prior to becoming DPA Director, Mr. Gilb was the Department's Chief of Labor Relations, since 2004, and deputy chief of labor relations from 1991 to 1999. From 1999 to 2004, he served as the State-appointed mediator for the Mediation and Conciliation Service, where he handled complex labor-management disputes in both the public and private sector.

He is a graduate of California State University at Fullerton.

04/28/08